Rolta Names Rich Niemiec President of Oracle Consulting Practice

Alpharetta, GA – World renowned Oracle expert Rich Niemiec has been named President of Rolta Americas' Oracle Consulting Practice.

Niemiec is an Oracle Ace Director who co-founded and served as CEO of TUSC, a Chicago-based systems integrator of Oracle-based business solutions acquired by Rolta in 2008. He has served as an Executive Advisor to Rolta International Board of Directors and as President of Rolta TUSC and Rolta Enterprise Information & Communication Technology (EICT) practice.

Niemiec is one of six originally honored worldwide Oracle Certified Masters, is the past President of the International Oracle Users Group (IOUG) and the current President of the Midwest Oracle Users Group (MOUG). He won IOUG's Chris Wooldridge Award for outstanding service to the user group community in 2012. That year he authored the number one Oracle bestseller "Oracle11g Release 2 Performance Tuning Tips & Techniques," an update of his previous three Oracle best sellers. He was inducted into the Entrepreneurship Hall of Fame in 1998.

"Rich has been an important voice at Rolta for many years, and we're excited to have him step into this new role to help guide our Oracle Consulting services to greater heights and bring his extraordinary expertise to our clients," said Preetha Pulusani, president of Rolta Americas. "A recognized global Oracle expert, he will accelerate the growth of our Oracle Consulting business with enriched client offerings, enhancing industry-specific expertise, and by aligning Rolta offerings to take full advantage of the Oracle technology roadmap."

Rolta is a leading provider of Consulting, Managed Services and Technology for many vertical segments, including Manufacturing, Financial Services, Utilities, Oil & Gas, Healthcare and Retail.
