Rolta Presenting Five Sessions at Oracle OpenWorld 2014

Atlanta, September 3, 2014 – Rolta, a global Oracle Platinum Partner and leader in Oracle-centric transformational services and solutions, will present five sessions at Oracle OpenWorld 2014 conference between September 28 and October 2 in San Francisco. Rolta Oracle Aces and experts will offer insights and discuss best practices for optimization of Oracle applications and technology investments.

"In today's economy, it is critical that organizations maximize the business benefits from their use of Oracle applications to drive competitive advantage," said Rich Niemiec, President of Rolta's Oracle Consulting practice. "Flexibility and choice in technology solutions, along with the surge of cloud-based offerings and data overload, add complexity and increase challenges for business and IT leaders to make smart decisions. Our goal is to serve as the customer's 'trusted partner' to help them make better Oracle deployment decisions and leverage IT investments to their strategic advantage."

Oracle OpenWorld, the information technology event dedicated to helping businesses optimize existing solutions and understand innovative technology breakthroughs, draws more than 45,000 attendees from 117 countries. Sessions to be presented by Rolta include:

- Big Data 101 and the Oracle Big Data Solution, Rich Niemiec
- The Best New Oracle Database 12c Features, Rich Niemiec
- The Best Oracle Database 12c Tuning Features, Rich Niemiec
- Acquisition Migration from SAP and an Oracle E-Business Suite 12 Upgrade, Alyssa Johnson
- Partitioning and Compression for Performance and Manageability, Michael Messina

Rich Niemiec, President of Rolta's Oracle Consulting practice, is a world renowned Oracle Ace Director. He is a past President of the International Oracle Users Group (IOUG) and the current President of the Midwest Oracle Users Group (MOUG). Niemiec is one of six originally honored as a worldwide Oracle Certified Master. He authored the #1 Oracle bestseller "Oracle11g Release 2 Performance Tuning Tips & Techniques," an update of his previous three Oracle best sellers.

Alyssa Johnson is a Rolta Practice Director and the current President of the Oracle Applications User Group (OAUG). She advises clients across all business areas, assisting with strategic IT planning and design, Oracle E-Business Suite implementations, Release 12 EBS upgrades, and Mergers & Acquisitions. Johnson is an international speaker on a variety of Oracle EBS topics and co-authored "The Release 12 Primer for Oracle E-Business Suite."

Michael Messina, an Oracle Ace, is a Senior Managing Consultant for AdvizeX Technologies, a Rolta company. He is an Oracle Certified Professional, Oracle RAC Administrator Certified Expert and Exadata Implementation Specialist with over 20 years of experience working with Oracle Databases. He authored several chapters in the book "Oracle Database 11g Release 2 Performance and Tuning Tips & Techniques."

Through conference presentations and discussions in tradeshow booth #1911 at Oracle OpenWorld, Rolta will share thought provoking ideas attendees can leverage to fully exploit the power of Oracle applications that are simultaneously practical and innovative.
