Rolta Presenting 18 Sessions at Collaborate 12
Annual Forum Provides Learning Opportunities to Oracle User Community

Mumbai : Rolta, a leading provider of innovative IT solutions, will present 18 educational sessions at "Collaborate 12" from April 22-26 in Las Vegas. The annual conference provides attendees with a variety of educational sessions on Oracle applications and technologies. At the sessions Rolta will cover Oracle Exadata, Hyperion DRM, Oracle Applications, Enterprise Performance management and Business Intelligence. Rolta is an 8-time Oracle Titan Award winner and Platinum Partner. The sessions will be delivered by Rolta experts and Ace Directors. They will offer insights and best practices from recent client engagements on how to best utilize Oracle applications and technologies.

"In today's environment, companies are aggressively seeking opportunities to achieve solid business value from their IT investments," said Ben Eazzetta, President of Rolta International. "The sessions provided by our team will deliver practical advice and guidance to organizations that are looking for ways to create efficiencies and reduce costs by leveraging their Oracle investments." "Selection of Rolta to deliver such training in a prestigious Oracle forum is recognition of Rolta's deep expertise in Oracle technologies," he added.
